Maid Introduction

Janette Lumibao, married to a farmer with 5 children, a resident of Isabela, a province where agriculture, mainly rice with a relatively huge corn crop is the biggest industry. She is fifth of the seven offspring rising from a family whose basic income relies from buy and sell items which her mother largely depended on. She took up vocational course in Cosmetology when she finished highschool which turned to be a good option because it serves as her only way to earn easy money at this time, doing manicure and pedicure among the neighborhood and elsewhere. She has been into a couple of short term jobs like selling goods in the wet market, and being a merchandiser assistant just to produce a living. So to create a more stable source of bringing in money, she decided to work abroad and get to work to Bahrain. Despite the country's strategic location she was never undermined to go, to secure her children's future.

- 1.) An applicant with good outlook in life and is striving hard for the future of her children. She is giving her best in every duties and responsibilities assigned to her. A well experienced maid as she has worked in Bahrain for 4 years and a mother of 5 ideal to care infant, young children, cooking and general housekeeping.
- 2.) Bahrain (2004-2008) Employed to an Arab family living in a flat with 3 children, only one child stayed in the custody of the parents aged 14. She successfully finished 2 contracts with the same family where her main duty is the household and the kitchen. She does all household assignment as required, cooks for the family and attends to the need of the teenager.
- 3.) This applicant can be deployed faster as they don't require further training as they have already experience as maid overseas they are only required to undergo test in preparation to English test as per Singapore Entry test requirements. Salary expectation of the maids varies from S\$360 per month.
