Maid Introduction

Janet C. Tambio, single resident of Isabela, the second largest province of the Philippines primarily agricultural and considered to be the rice and corn granary of Luzon. She grew up from a household with four children and whose parents are merely farm workers but despite the prevailing signs of poverty she was so fortunate to finish a degree in Psychology with both her parents' hard efforts to educate her. She was also a regular household help around the family even after she graduated from school. Afterward, she was engaged in different tutoring services in an elementary school for four months accepting home service and within school-premise tutorials prior to her domestic experience in Singapore last 2002. She is presently employed by a Chinese couple with 2 children whom she has a total of almost seven years now in service, started caring for an infant and another young child. Simultaneously, she took up Caregiving course here finishing after 3 months and experienced serving in a home institution for the elderly providing general caregiving and assistance. She is grateful for the kind support of her employer who allowed her to participate in such learning and over the more for understanding towards her aim to find a better working environment outside Singapore. She is hopeful to be granted the opportunity in turn she may continue to help her family financially.

1.) This pleasant looking hopeful has long been involved in the nature of domestic service thus allowing her to be a competent candidate in infant and childcare, general housekeeping duties, and capable of preparing a range of Chinese and Western cooking. Janet is a courteous and responsive applicant as manifested during the interview. As to her, she is an honest and a hardworker helper at home who always puts high value on her work especially with regards to attending children. She can understand very well child psychology and varying behaviours as she had been into this job scope for seven years. And, with her Caregiving practice, she can also suit to care for elderly.

2.) Singapore (2002-present) She is currently working under the employment of a Chinese family living in a Condominium with 2 children. When she first serve the family, she cared for an infant and a 6 year-old but now both kids are in school ages 6 and 13.
