Maid Introduction

Mary Jane C. Baldonado, single undergraduate in BS Elementary Education from Agusan del Sur, a province located in Caraga region in Mindanao whose economy is mainly agriculture and forestry. She personally cared for her father who suffered from a stroke due to hypertension six months before he passed away and now her mother is a retired elementary teacher who jointly supported their education way back in secondary and tertiary level. Since then she was mostly reliable to contribute fundamental household help to her mother especially in looking after her younger siblings. To facilitate monetary aid to both parents, she right away seek out employment and was taken by a leading corporate company (Gaisano Group of Companies) operating numerous department stores nationwide as a sales associate. At the same time she had a small minimart in their area to have additional daily revenue while she also worked as a housemaid to a Filipino family. She took care of 2 young children for 2 years before she finally decided to explore her chances in Singapore last 2006 where she was luckily chosen by a Singaporean family and still remains to serve them and the 3 children. However, she is decided to search out for new opportunities other than Singapore so she to attain better settlement and earn even higher amount to satisfactorily suffice her family financially.

1.) This vibrant and pleasant looking aspirant is a patient, hardworking and has a positive outlook in life as she have indicated in her application data. As spoken, she believes that her right attitude and strong commitment towards her work allowed her to stay steadfast while giving her best effort in each task she does. She has adequate knowledge on all areas of childcare being into the said line of work for 5 years and now continues to be effective towards housekeeping duties and cooking requisites. She is deems that with her acquired qualifications, she is suitable to perform all reletad tasks in domesctc service.

2.) Philippines (2003-2005) She served a Filipino family where she took care of 2 children ages 1 and 3 years old. She puts high attention on both kids at all times and plays with them whenever free from any work to do. Also did housekeeping and cooking regularly.

3.) Singapore (2006-present) She is presently employed by a Singaporean family living in a HDB with 3 children ages 9 (twin) and 10 years old. Apart from the general housekeeping duties she partake everyday, she sends and fetches the kids from school, prepares their food and all their needs at home.

4.) Application for country outside Singapore: Canada, UK, Norway, Spain, Denmark, Australia Â....
