Maid Introduction

Luzviminda T. Galat, single a high school graduate from Cagayan, a province of the Philippines located at the northeastern corner of the island of Luzon and majority of the people living are engaged in farming including Luzviminda's family. She is the third child of a farmer father and a housekeeper mother with 7 children. Insufficient funds hinder her from taking further education and instead settle only for her high school diploma. She finishes her secondary education by her own drive by working as maid to a Filipino family then after a year she moved to another Filipino family in which she serves for 2 years. She also works as factory worker in a garments factory that she held for 2 years. Currently, she is again working as maid to another Filipino family so she can support her expenses in flying to Singapore for work.

1.) This dependable experienced maid applicant is well verse in all housework and care giving having 3 years in the domestic helper service in the Philippines. She can cook Filipino and is overly eager to learn more. When she finishes her high school by her own drive by working as maid, she proves that she is has a high sense of initiative, responsible, and hardworking and can manage her time well therefore recommended for general housekeeping, caring for young children and cooking.

2.) Philippines(2001-2002/2002-2004/2009-present) At first she worked as housemaid to a Filipino family with 3 children staying in a bungalow with 3 children ages 11, 17 and 19 years old in which she performs housekeeping, cooking and attending to the needs of all the family members. Then, after a year, she transferred to another Filipino household, settling in a bungalow with 4 children ages 3, 6, 8 and 10 years old. During her stay she is highly responsible to look after the children, does laundry, ironing, cleaning, mopping, vacuuming, household shopping and others. Meanwhile, she is serving a family staying in a 2-storey house with 2 full grown children whereby she is accountable to up keep the setting of the house, cooking and other domestic related tasks.

3.) Have undergone basic training with Philippine coordinator. After selection to undergo in house Private training in Manila (Accredited by TESDA) for a whole week then while doing the documentation in Singapore to undergo training before handing over to the prospective employer.
