Maid Introduction

Mirasol S. Cabahug came from Negros Occidental, Philippines. She is single and with Diploma in Bookkeeping and Accounting. She was a working student during college, worked to a Filipino family as housemaid at the morning and studying at night. She graduated with a 2 year course. She decided to work abroad to help her parents financially. She was employed to a Chinese family here in Singapore year 2005 as Domestic Helper. She was responsible to general housekeeping in the residence and looked after the two (2) children of her employer. She also assisted in caring the bedridden mother of her employer during that time. When her contract was finished already after 2 years, she was transferred to another Chinese family. Being an all around maid of the family she executes all the household duties in the house and took care the child of her employer. She went home after serving 3 years with her last employer

1) This applicant can be dependable to handle the general housekeeping in the household. She is capable of taking care newborn, infants, children and elderly effectively.
